that they would be eligible for the many useful prizes. Mrs. Norton expected her baby a week earlier and when it did come on New Year's Day she was sure that some other baby had been born even closer to midnight. A check of all the hospitals showed that she was the winner and so the Nortons quickly dug up The Torrance Press application blank and sent it to this paper.

The baby joins two brothers, Walter, 2, and Ronald Joseph, 1. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W.-R. Norton of 1612 255th street, Harbor City, and maternal grandparent is Mrs. Helen C. Pizer of 1563 224th street, Shoestring.

The baby's father is a carpenter.

Prizes

Merchants who welcomed this latest addition to the constantly growing population of Torrance with generous gifts are: Frank's Furniture, Gary's Jeweler's, Lawson's Jeweler's, Burke's Bargain Spot, Photo Arts Studio, Torrance Launderette, Food King Market, McCown Drug Store, McMahan's Furniture, Pixie Baby Shoppe, Flamingo Flowers and Gifts, Allen Jeweler's, Newberry's, Bernard's Family Shoe Store, Squire Style Shoppe, Neta's Tots and Teens, Baker's Furniture, Star Furniture company, and Parris Stationers.

COURAGE IS, on all hands, considered as an essential of high character.—Froude.

Gets License Number

When Beckel was through with Hamilton and drove off in the car, the officer noted the license number and notified the local police.

Officers Davis and Walker answered the call, Sgt. Friberg and Officer Hamilton thereupon went to Beckel's place and brought the group to the police station.

"You pack a pretty powerful wallop," someone told Beckel.

"Yes, but I'm not proud of it," he said. "It was all a misunderstanding. One thing led to another . . ."

TRADE FAIRS
